PYTHAGORAS SAYS

Each time you increase the Destiny Number and start with Soul Number 1, the Personality Number starts descending, beginning with one less than the Destiny Number. Like almost everything else in numerology, the pattern is cyclic.

Let's now take a look at the meanings behind each combination, in order by Destiny Number.

Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 9

You're a leader, not a follower. A natural politician, you have a strong inspirational effect on others and can motivate large groups with your persuasive and glad-handing demeanor.

People are impressed by your range of influence and the scope of your ideas. You think big and strive for success. Because you inspire trust in others, they readily sign on to your program and help promote your ideas. An expert planner, you often stage events or organize campaigns that benefit others; however, it's always a win-win arrangement, as they also burnish your reputation and further your career.

Just as you thrive on competition and challenge in your career, you enjoy the chase in your personal relationships. The compliments of an attentive mate can make you very demonstrative. You're also an impulsive lover, and your restless nature means you're easily bored in matters of the heart when your mate doesn't share your take-charge approach.

Your self-sufficient persona tells others you have the world by the tail. However, beneath that confident exterior is a romantic soul who seeks to love and be loved.

Although aggressive and independent in a work environment, you're an excellent listener and want to cooperate with others, even if you don't always do so. You project an aura of prosperity that impresses others.

You have the tendency to let pride get in the way of the personal relationships you crave. Seek out a mate who recognizes the sensitive soul hidden beneath your protective shell and can provide the reassurance you need.

Although you often take things personally, you have the fortitude to overcome your feelings. When you direct your sensitivity toward others, you can read between the lines and give yourself a decided edge in both personal and professional dealings.

Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 7

You live a fast-paced life, ignoring people and activities that don't interest you. With an insatiable appetite for variety, you require a spectrum of creative outlets. Unless you can find like spirits to surround you, you're content keeping your own company. You possess an independent, nonconformist streak and hate being dominated by others.

Others may see you as aloof and difficult to approach, but this contrasts with the appeal of your youthful appearance and great vitality. An admirer who flatters you and can keep up with your pace will discover your friendly and fun-loving side.

A keen observer, you enjoy entertaining others with your impressions and impersonations. You're in constant pursuit of self-expression and enjoy time alone to refine your act.

Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 6

You work and play hard, demanding a lot of yourself and those around you. Your strength and independence means you prefer to do things your own way. Others often describe you as stubborn and set in your ways, but you've earned a reputation for being fair and keeping your word.

You're practical and self-sufficient. Although you find ways to do good deeds, you do so in a way that ensures your contribution is noticed and recognized. Strong drive and determination mean you always see projects from concept to completion.

Dedicated to quality, you instill confidence in others through your ability to coordinate a smooth, economical process. You seek the best deal on the best product, are compelled to surround yourself with comfort and beauty, and thrive on providing luxury to your loved ones.

DID YOU KNOW?

If you have a Destiny Number of 1, it's likely that your Destiny Number will be dominant over your Soul and Personality Numbers. This is because Destiny Number 1s generally indicate powerful people.

Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 5

You embody the admonition of “expect the unexpected.” Energized by a fast-paced schedule, you do things on your own time and resist the restriction of a 9-to-5 job. You’re also full of creative ideas and need the freedom to implement them.

Unconventional and original, you aren’t usually affected by the opinions of others. However, you easily incorporate new ideas and concepts into your planning. Even though you tend to like your ideas best, you’re able to modify your point of view when the situation calls for it. Fortunately, you’ve learned when to stand firm and when it’s wisest to bend to the wishes of others around you.

You court risk and yearn for adventure. In the country’s early days, you would have been one of the pioneers who headed West. Independent, you crave being in the middle of the action in any space. When you want to, you can be very flexible, but you have a short attention span when things get dull and often drop what you’re doing to go where the action is.

Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 4

Your goal in life is to help others and participate in loving and harmonious relationships. Even while striving for fairness and avoiding confrontation, you feel the need to express your opinions and crave the last word.

Responsibility is a serious matter for you, and you exhibit honor when protecting others’ welfare. Even though you approach matters in a strong and determined manner, those on the receiving end of your advice need to understand that you’re a solid individual whose word can be trusted.

Your quick and creative mind helps you present a logical appearance. When resolving problems, you seek the prudent and conservative course of solution. Avoiding hasty decision-making, you analyze all sides of a prospective endeavor first. You always finish what you start and only undertake projects that show potential.

With an excellent eye for balance and design, your home and surroundings are comfortable and attractive. This is a good thing, as home is where you prefer to be. Also an expert bargain shopper, you’re especially pleased when quality can be found at a reasonable price.

Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 3

The first impression you make doesn't reflect your inner self. At your core, you're strong willed and determined, but you present yourself as an easygoing and sociable companion. And although you're sociable and entertaining in group settings and appear to enjoy everyone's company and attention, you're actually somewhat reserved and very selective in who you let get close. Basically, you aren't always as confident and self-assured as you make others believe.

Your innovative ideas can elicit significant improvements in your career. Lively discussions invigorate you, and you enjoy expressing your opinion when analyzing a subject or situation. You can be withdrawn and introspective when trying to unravel difficult situations. If people get too inquisitive or intrude on your personal space, you back off and drop them from your circle. However, you can turn on the charm to elicit the information you seek.

Your considerate and laid-back appearance conceals a person of independent mind and who loves to get his or her own way. While others see a sensitive and cooperative demeanor, you actually have a strong will and fierce determination.

While you solicit and consider the opinions of those around you, you're the ultimate decision-maker. You may listen to the input of others, but overall you're reluctant to change your mind once it's made up. With a strong code of ethics, you make up your own rules and often have innovative ideas and approaches.

Your organizational and leadership skills let you develop and execute custom plans, resulting in successful and profitable endeavors. Diplomatic when giving direction, you readily inspire others to follow your lead.

You're patient, even when dealing with those who can't keep up. Although you thrive on challenge and love competition, you're willing to forego some success to have others join in your achievements.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 8, and Personality Number 2 weighs all factors at hand before coming to a decision. However, you often lack the flexibility or willingness to make mid-course corrections based on new information.

Destiny Number 1, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 1

This combination indicates a person of great energy with original ideas and a penchant for leadership. Despite great determination and a tendency toward independence, you still find it within yourself to be generous toward those around you. You take great pleasure in helping others and do a lot to make your corner of the world a better place.

You initially impress others with the enthusiasm and energy you devote to attaining your goals, but people become even more impressed when they realize your ambition isn't purely personal. You use your ability to come up with concepts that grow any business or project in which you're involved. Big plans and your personal imprint are part of everything you do.

Although you're at home wherever you go and fit in easily anywhere, you stand out in a crowd. You enjoy receiving the praises of others and take great pride in your achievements and capabilities. Therefore, taking orders or direction from others is something you dislike.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 1

Agreeable and accommodating up to a point, you listen to other people's opinions but ultimately follow your own judgment and convictions.

You're observant enough to recognize when resentment is festering and instinctively know when to clear the air tactfully. People respect your ability to simultaneously stand up for yourself while cooperating in joint ventures. They find you inspirational and persuasive and are glad to follow your lead.

Depending upon your mood, you're either willing to work alone or partner with someone efficient. However, you can be patient with someone who's making an honest effort. When on a creative tear, you work better alone but will take the time to let others recognize your contributions.

You make a serious attempt to consider all aspects of a situation in order to achieve a mutually satisfactory result, even though you know what you want (and appear to get it).

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 9

You inspire many and therefore have a lot of devotees. Because you're an authority in your field, others tend to seek your expertise, and you're happiest when sharing your knowledge and insights. Others also find you readily available when a thoughtful touch is needed.

72 Part 2: The Secrets in Your Name

Although you have a wide circle of acquaintances and are gracious to all, a caring and intimate relationship is essential to your happiness.

You're a patient and understanding audience who exercises great diplomacy in going that extra mile to help others. A highly regarded student of human nature, people buy into your vision of how things ought to be.

You're not wild about change and will often go back and forth or rely on the opinion or advice of someone you trust before coming to a decision. Sensitive to the feelings of others, you also like to avoid being the bearer of ill tidings.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 8

You're an effervescent person who has a knack for storytelling and strives to be the life of the party. Although you may occasionally be shy, you never give that impression. You can be very funny when you're comfortable with good friends and just let loose.

Using your charm and gift for gab, you have the know-how to get almost anything you want from others, whether it's the last piece of pizza or the signature on a big contract.

By paying careful attention to your diet and health, you possess tremendous energy for both your social and business lives. You also project a prosperous image by maintaining a youthful and polished appearance that draws others to you.

Your outward appearance of organization and control can conceal a disorganized inner you. You'd rather be with a companion having fun than sitting alone in your office organizing your files and straightening your desk.

IT DOESN'T ADD UP

The Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 3, and Personality Number 8 tends to rely more on your personality than your talents. If something is really important, try to push your skills rather than your charisma. Remember that personality can get you elected, but a failure to perform is what everyone will remember once you've left your post.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 7

Although you like to help others and listen to all viewpoints, you find it difficult to walk in another's shoes. You prefer small groups where conversation is one-on-one and are very cautious in forming friendships.

Although generally amicable, you avoid small talk, making it difficult for many to see beyond your shyness and reserved exterior. The special person in your life knows that although there's frost on the surface, there's fire in the furnace.

You often react emotionally and find it hard to express your feelings without revealing more of yourself than you wish to share. Keeping things bottled up, you're sometimes resentful about not speaking your mind in order to avoid hurting someone's feelings.

You feel duty-bound to finish what you start and have a compulsion to be and appear put-together. People respect you for your ordered life, even if they perceive you as somewhat nitpicky. And while you're usually prudent and economical, you're generous with yourself and those close to you on occasion.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 6

Your kind, loving personality attracts a wide circle of friends. People think of you as someone they can count on in hard times due to your warmth and hospitality. Those who know you well admire your curiosity and sense of adventure, suspecting a hint of wanderlust under the surface.

Your stability and responsibility are evident, though many appreciate that you also have an adaptable and easygoing nature. You're often called upon to resolve disputes and settle controversy due to your deserved reputation for tact and diplomacy, as well as your ability to listen to all sides of an issue.

You absorb information like a sponge and are happiest when involved in simultaneous projects. You often come up with new ideas for your next project while still chasing your current pursuits.

Freedom is essential to your personal happiness, but your sense of right and wrong precludes you from pursuing it if it would mean shirking your responsibilities.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 5

Although a homebody at heart, you appear outgoing and adventurous to others. Broad interests and a busy schedule make you also appear exciting and full of curiosity.

You're a loyal friend with few prejudices who derives great pleasure from being of service to others. Happy to offer advice, know that some may choose to ignore your input.

Your enthusiasm and promotional talents make it easy to get others to jump on your bandwagon. Because you tend to make value judgments, you love to root for the underdog. You have a strong sense of justice, especially considering your desire to please everyone. You also frequently adjust your opinions to avoid hurt feelings and confrontation.

Your romantic nature calls for an honorable and understanding mate. Because harmony is so essential to your happiness, you work hard to promote and maintain a loving relationship.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 4

People are unaware of how much thought and effort you put into analyzing a situation and choosing your words—they only see your ability to do or say the right thing at the right time. You avoid speaking out of turn, and your sense of propriety prevents you from telling some lively stories. Guarding your feelings carefully, you choose when to participate and when to stay silent.

Sensitive by nature, you sometimes require solitude to sort out your feelings. In an attempt to keep everyone happy, you find it difficult to say “no.”

You project a conservative and orderly image in both your appearance and surroundings. Susceptible to petty annoyances, you prefer all aspects of your life to be neat and orderly.

Your honor and integrity inspire your friends, who count on your considered and practical advice. You also employ keen powers of observation and intuition in pursuit of the truth. Although you don't always call people on their misrepresentations, you're aware of them and don't let anyone pull the wool over your eyes.

IT DOESN'T ADD UP

If you're a Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 7, and Personality Number 4, your bywords are “watch, listen, and learn.” However, this can lead you to be less than trusting of others. Try to understand that little white lies may be used to avoid hurting your feelings rather than to conceal something sinister.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 3

While you appear patient, sociable, and charming, people are unaware of the iron will at your core. You express yourself well, both in spoken and written word. Using your sense of humor to make a good story even better, you bask in the attention of a receptive audience.

Your organization and efficiency let you get your work done with energy to spare, regardless of the number of tasks you undertake. You also find it impossible to sit back and do nothing when you witness something being done poorly or incorrectly. Jumping right in to do the job right, you always perform up to your own high standards.

You're a good listener, fascinated by the complexities of human nature and interaction. You do what it takes to make people feel special, but you also like to get your own way. While most of the time you are content to humor people, sometimes your emotions get the best of you when you don't get your way.

Destiny Number 2, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 2

You're an idealist and humanitarian who sacrifices for those you love and those in need. In return, you receive the understanding and affection essential to your psyche.

Always a soft touch for a hard-luck story, you're perpetually sentimental and hate to turn anyone down. You're also able to forgive and forget any disappointments in the name of love.

A natural student, you possess the extensive knowledge and patience that make you an excellent teacher. You're typically mild-mannered and tolerant, carefully deliberating before offering a solution in an attempt to make everyone happy.

Normally quiet, you can display a surprising ire when provoked sufficiently or hurt. Deep emotions guide you through your relationships and manifest in an appreciation of art and music.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 2

Your ability to wrap people around your little finger helps you lead a charmed existence. You're friendly, personable, and socially graceful, leading others to seek your company. Also, your diplomatic skills result in people giving you what you want.

A busy schedule combined with a youthful exuberance make you almost legendary among those who know you. You make it all work because you crave outlets for your energy and creativity. Because of your facility with words, you can talk your way into and out of almost anything. You conceal your impatience and get others to accomplish much for you in pursuit of your many goals.

Your priority list is topped by a need to be recognized as popular and unique. Because a youthful appearance is essential in your life, you want to remain young and gather praise while others collect the wrinkles. In matters of the heart, you need a communicative and fun-loving partner who can join you in outdoor activities while still being sympathetic to your need for independence.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 1

Your facility with words and ability to put others at ease make you especially persuasive. Your confidence inspires others to see you as a master multitasker. Sensitive to others' feelings, you avoid controversy in an attempt to keep everybody happy. When asked to join your campaign, people gladly enlist because they see you as someone who will lead them to victory.

You will have to make many choices in your lifetime regarding friends, careers, and romantic partners. Although you project a strong and decisive front, each choice will be the result of sober deliberation. You often find it difficult to choose which of the many ideas that run through your mind to pursue.

Your individualized manner of dress projects your fondness for luxury and beauty. Combined with youthful enthusiasm, your carefree and optimistic outlook attracts people of all ages, particularly children. People generally give you what you want with a smile as you charm and entertain them with great humor.

IT DOESN'T ADD UP

If you are a Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 2, and Personality Number 1, your ongoing deliberations can lead to indecisiveness. Tackle issues head-on rather than vacillating ad infinitum if you want more of your ideas to see fruition.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 9

Always in contact with one or more people, you're a master networker. You're never at a loss for words, but you desire to be seen as well as heard.

Your imagination and charisma help you spread the word about any cause you choose to promote. Flirtatious and intoxicated by applause and appreciation, you can be quite entertaining.

You're optimistic, generous, and truly care about your fellow man. Because you love to attract attention with your appearance, you may spend extravagantly, particularly when it comes to your wardrobe.

Overly constrained by a 9-to-5 existence, you come into your own when given the freedom to set your own schedule. There's also a bit of the gypsy in your soul, as you love to travel and roam.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 8

Your belief in hard work has obviously paid off, as people tend to see you as successful. You appear to others to be in charge and surrounded by the fruits of your labor. You have a well-earned reputation for keeping your word and fulfilling your responsibilities. Others admire you for your logic and ability to express yourself when finding solutions to problems.

You strive to get the most for your dollar and always enjoy a good bargain. Creativity and the ability to analyze how things work help you design and build systems that do the job well.

You've built your life on a solid foundation, and you seek tangible results from all that you do. Looking young, being in good health, establishing financial security, forming long-lasting relationships, and maintaining family traditions top your priority list.

Always convinced that you know the answer, you choose your words carefully and employ your charm to influence others. Although unwilling to show others your feelings, you can be quite blunt when angered.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 7

Variety is central to your life and needs, and an optimistic outlook compels you to experiment with new ideas. You're always on the go and prefer to travel in the fast lane. In relationships, you don't just ask for freedom, you take it by the horns.

You're a natural promoter, quickly sizing up situations and people and employing your verbal skills to sell your ideas to others. Your enthusiasm is contagious, and you demonstrate genuine interest with perceptive questions that flatter your audience. Always curious about what makes others tick, you're reticent to reveal what drives you.

You might spread yourself too thin with multiple concurrent projects, even though others might think of you as a perfectionist and expect more than you might deliver. Some people might also see you as evasive and wonder about the inner you. Not seeing your secretive, analytical side, others are unable to recognize your inner shyness or sense that you might be lacking in self-confidence.

DID YOU KNOW?

If you're a Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 5, and Personality Number 7, politics—whether corporate or governmental—is a possible venue for you.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 6

You have tremendous charisma and attract a legion of admirers. Although you love being the center of attention, you derive more pleasure from helping others and are generous with advice and support.

Your family depends on you to lead the way, and your personal choices are the consequence of focusing on their welfare. Home is your haven, and you always have an open-door policy.

With a strong desire for harmony, you do everything within your power to keep those around you happy and content. You attempt to right all wrongs in your quest for justice. Convinced of your own correctness, you expect others to agree with you.

Always generous, you seek quality for yourself and others. If the best is out of reach, you bide your time until you can afford it.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 5

Outwardly friendly and full of sociability, you're actually somewhat shy and don't warm up to strangers as quickly as others think you do. Just when they think that they've gotten to know you, people are often surprised by the deeper facets of your personality.

You combine glibness with an analytical mind, often engaging in long monologues covering a range of subjects. You're versatile but greatly enjoy having talented mentors in a variety of areas.

Your written skills are excellent, as is your ability to critique; you quickly differentiate between ordinary and extraordinary effort and results. Your perfectionism drives you to try new approaches and tactics to improve performance.

Attractive to the opposite sex, you really seek and need that special someone who can bolster you when you feel misunderstood.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 4

You're organized, even when you have myriad new ideas. An expert delegator, you expect and demand that the people you choose are up to the task.

Multifaceted and farsighted, you're very creative. Your enthusiasm occasionally lets you be distracted, but your organizational skills generally see you through.

You're eloquent, which is a decided advantage when convincing others to share your vision and opinion. A natural communicator and motivator, you easily win friends and influence people. Others sign on because they know and trust your record of accomplishment.

Your major goals are financial success and the respect of your peers. You walk a high wire confidently from vision to reality.

Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 3

You can charm anyone while using your gift of gab to entertain others and promote your ideas and pet projects. Before an audience, you can make even dull material interesting.

You have a large circle of friends and acquaintances and are often hosting affairs where you're praised for your sense of humor. The way you preen when complimented only enhances the show.

You're generous and extravagant, spending money freely. Not wanting to disappoint your fans, you purchase the best of everything and shower your friends with gifts.

Even though you want to get your own way, your heart of gold leads you to indulge your loved ones. And when lacking outside activities, you have a tendency to be overprotective of those close to you.

When you get out and meet interesting new people, you consider it a day very well spent, with your optimism spreading cheer wherever you go.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Destiny Number 3, Soul Number 9, and Personality Number 3 is a social butterfly, flitting and fluttering about. Always attracting a large audience, you make even the most mundane story exciting.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 3

You're determined and possess great patience. You keep your goals in mind and are willing to do whatever it takes to achieve them. Recognizing that the devil is in the details, you tackle routine tasks with the same energy and focus you place on larger ideals of leadership and creativity.

To maintain your reputation, you make sure that any job with your name attached to it is done to the highest standards. You hate being rushed or pressured and seek the opportunity to see your plans through to fruition. You specialize in projects that are both original and practical.

You work best and are happiest when part of a team that shares your vision and high standards. People enjoy working with you because of your outgoing and pleasant persona. Others would be wise to do their homework before contradicting you or trying to prove you wrong.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 2

Your common sense is allied with a good mind that absorbs facts like a sponge. You impress others as a reliable, cooperative, and hard worker who notices all details and inspire them when you share what you know and what you've learned. Your ability to assemble seemingly disparate items into something working and useful is another facet of you that amazes people.

Extremely loyal, you go out of your way to please others. Your winning personality and kindness make others feel comfortable around you, even when you seem set in your ways. When surrounded by those about whom you care, you exercise patience and compromise as necessary.

You internalize hurt feelings rather than risk uncomfortable situations and confrontations. Caring about what other people think, you make an effort to listen to them.

It's fortunate that you're good at finding bargains, because you can be generous to a fault. You also desire meaningful relationships and freely give of yourself when pursuing them.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 1

A strong public persona and an aura of practicality make people see you as a strong leader. They value your ability to explain complicated subjects and concepts in comprehensible terms.

You have an eye for design and a highly developed imagination, both of which enhance your versatility. Strong determination drives you to get your own way.

A master planner, you have the ability to balance hard work with spontaneity. You often spend more time than necessary during the planning stages of a project to make certain that everyone understands where you're coming from. However, your desire for tangible results can be counterbalanced by a tendency to procrastinate.

You epitomize the saying that "many a truth is said in jest," as you are reluctant to reveal your true feelings. When not fully confident, you can be defensive. Though occasionally unsure of yourself, you tend to mask that uncertainty and come across as in control.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 9

Unless someone can demonstrate a superior method or technique, you stick with what works—you avoid experimentation when a working model exists. You will, however, tweak what's there for improved performance, reliability, or cost-effectiveness.

You demand excellence of yourself and others, making every effort to finish what you start. People also know that you're reliable when it comes to meeting schedules and staying within budget. You're methodical and keep constant track of your progress.

Your nature is to be punctual and frugal, but your musical and artistic talents give you a less practical outlet. Your emotions run deep, but you aren't always able to express them.

You demonstrate generosity within the constraints of your frugal nature. For example, you only contribute to charities where you know your donations will be put to effective use. You also derive great pleasure from giving and receiving appreciation.

DID YOU KNOW?

With a Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 4, and Personality Number 9, you possess a unique mix of practicality and artistic expression that makes you a Renaissance Man (or Woman). You have to work to control your ebullience in order to meet those schedules and stay within budget, but the results justify that effort.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 8

You have the energy to manage large projects to completion and work alongside your subordinates to ensure success. If it takes getting your hands dirty to achieve the desired result, you'll look for the soap later.

Very self-disciplined, you're painstaking and meticulous in your work. After hours, you're dedicated to enjoying the company of a wide assortment of friends, all of whom you keep in regular contact with.

You dress well and take care of yourself, contributing to making a good impression. Your friends know that a down-to-Earth soul is sheltered within that impressive wardrobe. Even when suffering from inner turmoil, you present a solid front.

An outer balance combined with a complex inner self make you a puzzle to many. Even when given a logical reason to change your mind, you tend to be quite stubborn. And your conservative and practical façade conceals a free spirit with a case of wanderlust. This multidimensionality can be a surprise to others.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 7

A generous heart beats within your reserved shell. You're discriminating and cautious, but some take that for aloofness. Once people understand your true nature, they value your patience and ability to avoid jumping to conclusions.

You have a tendency to take on more than your share of the load when you're in service to others. Trying to be helpful, you offer advice, even when it will be ignored. Although you mean well, some people take your suggestions as criticism.

You diligently avoid confrontation and hate to argue. Sometimes, especially when you don't fully agree, you find it difficult to adapt to others.

Your tendency to analyze helps you find superior quality at good prices. Dishonesty or insincerity put you off, and superficiality and inferior products offend your senses. This analytical bent also helps you sort out facts and come to fair and just conclusions.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 6

A strong sense of responsibility and a logical mind are at your core. You take a practical approach, proceeding cautiously and paying attention to detail. You also ask pertinent questions and take the time to seek the answers, chafing when pressured or rushed to come to a decision. Although you enjoy luxury, you strive more for quality.

When in a discussion, you tend to listen and avoid speaking off the cuff. You also don't like to make decisions or pronouncements until you're sure of the facts and your conclusions. Once committed, though, you keep your word.

You hate being questioned about yourself, but you want to know the who, what, when, and why of any situation you encounter. People don't always realize just how long it takes for you to make close friends; they only see the result of your steadfastness toward those friends.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 5

Once you make up your mind to do something, you're single-minded in your pursuit of the goal. You seek power and prosperity and work hard to attain both. Your frugality helps you budget and track every penny.

You strive to stay mentally and physically balanced in spite of a busy, almost frantic, social life. You seem so carefree and fun-loving that people are often surprised to see you're happiest when in control and doing things your way. You appear to be game to try anything new, so it's sometimes surprising to others just how steadfast a friend you can be. Anyone who knows you well, though, recognizes your stable center.

People appreciate and acknowledge how you approach even routine tasks with energy, often turning chaos into order. Your flexibility lets them forgive your perfectionist tendencies.

DID YOU KNOW?

As a Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 8, and Personality Number 5, you want everything to be perfect. However, you realize that perfection is a goal never achieved. Your best characteristic is recognizing when "good enough" is good enough.

Destiny Number 4, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 4

People see you as dependable and trustworthy, with strong organizational skills. You're a stickler for playing by the rules, which is something people recognize about you. You also have talents in art or music and the corresponding sense of design or rhythm.

Deeply concerned about others' welfare, you have strong humanitarian instincts. You temper your natural heart of gold with logic and practicality.

You're set in your ways and have a history of prudence, but you also have an urge to do something grandiose and extravagant. Your generous urges are balanced by a need for financial security and thrifty habits. You feel great satisfaction when your good deeds are recognized and appreciated.

You're patient and sympathetic when confronted by the problems of others. Sentimental and romantic, you share your true feelings with only a select few.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 4

Your traditional persona conceals the fact that you're really a nonconformist who hates to be pinned down. People see you as reliable, solid, and a pillar of strength—they would be surprised that you wish to eschew the traditional and try new approaches.

Happiest in a leadership position, you can provide direction to individuals and groups. One benefit of being in charge is that you can often make your own hours and set a schedule that provides time to relieve stress and pressure.

You work to appear patient, even when you feel the urge to finish other people's sentences. You're adaptable and react quickly, which lets you accomplish more in less time than most people.

Your outward appearance of a wide range of friends conceals a core that needs a lot of "me time." Seeking like souls, you gravitate toward people who cater to your need for freedom and independence.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 3

You enjoy being in the spotlight, surrounded by an appreciative audience. Engaging and entertaining, you're possessed with a natural talent for self-expression. Your audience is impressed by the way you present yourself, a product, or an idea. When moved to express your insights, you can be inspirational.

You love to love and be loved, leading you to seek companionship and group activities. An inter-dependent relationship with a supportive mate who is as fun-loving and flexible as you are is the perfect kind of union for you.

Involved in myriad activities, you give the impression that you can accomplish anything you set out to do. However, your sociability and confidence conceal an inner sensitivity. You have a personal Jiminy Cricket on your shoulder—your conscience keeps your adventurous side from writing checks that your outer enthusiasm and energy can't help you cash.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 2

You have a talent for expressing original ideas through spoken and written words. A quick and agile mind compels you to share your ideas and conclusions with an audience. But you often get ahead of the audience, making your next point while they're still struggling with the previous one.

You welcome change and the accompanying challenges in your battle against boredom. Just as you occasionally leave a sentence unfinished, you sometimes leave a project incomplete.

Others call upon you frequently to referee disputes or settle arguments, as even difficult personalities seem to respond to your friendly manner. You can also be attractively flirtatious to others.

It's not that you can't make up your mind; it's just that new information has you frequently changing your opinion. You're an optimist and find that a change of direction just makes life more interesting. You tend to live in the present, rarely looking back or worrying what the future might hold.

IT DOESN'T ADD UP

Others may see the Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 3, and Personality Number 2 as unpredictable. While you find that impulsiveness makes life interesting, those around you might not hold the same view. Work on knowing when new data is not consequential—if it isn't, then hold the course.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 1

Others see you as a leader—one who is determined and capable of coping with any situation. Being congenial and gently persuasive, you make a great advocate or salesperson.

You have an active imagination, and new ideas flow from you like water from a spring. You also have a practical side and methodically impose order on your creative ventures.

You leave no stone unturned when researching your projects. You carefully analyze data, separating fact from fluff and continuing only with what's useful.

Your sense of responsibility prevents your personal preferences from interfering with deadlines or fulfilling a commitment. And your practicality and desire for security usually wins out over any impulsive actions.

You have a rare ability to keep your eye on the prize and still deal with the unexpected, both good and bad, that life throws your way.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 9

You're especially adept at dealing with the public and have the energy to exercise your many talents in that pursuit. Your friendly and gracious nature gains you the trust of diverse people.

Compassion for the problems of others is a big part of your persona. A fascination about what makes people tick combined with a talent for character analysis drive you concerning other people's activities.

People see you as someone who has seen it all, is well-traveled, and is constantly on the go—they envy your exciting life. Schedules nettle your free spirit; the thought of punching a time clock sends you running for the hills. You would rather be busy than bored, and your occasional impatience can impel you to start something new before you've dotted the Is and crossed the Ts of your latest venture.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 8

You appear to others as a winner, unflappable and stable. Regardless of how busy you are, you always seem to land on your feet.

You possess the extra drive to take on a large new project while still completing your current endeavor or planning the next. Your sense of duty drives you to meet all your commitments.

Home and domestic responsibilities win out over your restless side that's curious about what's around the bend. You frequently rearrange furniture or redecorate in order to discharge your creative urges and your restless side.

You have many friends, and your commitment to them is as important to you as your desire for freedom. Your air of authority draws people to you, and they respect the fairness you demonstrate in your dealings with others. Friends and neighbors often rely upon you to resolve disputes with no hurt feelings.

You possess an eagle eye for discovering flaws and a sixth sense in uncovering inconsistencies. Combined with a knack for finding clues and solutions in apparently unlikely places, you come up with answers and solutions. Perceptive questioning and a relentless search for clues help you arrive at accurate conclusions.

You're more comfortable posing questions than you are answering them. Mistaking your amicable exterior as an open invitation, some people make the error of invading your privacy. Your adverse reaction to this kind of attention from others makes you appear enigmatic. You sometimes feel misunderstood and have trouble understanding why others may not think as you do.

You have a quick mind and require a lot of mental stimulation to be happy. Knowledgeable people willing to share that knowledge are your favorite companions. Someone who's flexible and willing to grant you alone time is the ideal partner.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 7, and Personality Number 7 needs to understand—especially when dealing with others who share your numbers—that it's okay to answer questions and not just ask them. In fact, your own answers can lead you to consider new lines of inquiry.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 6

You have a good head for business; in fact, one of your ideas is going to prove lucrative in the future. Your people skills are the basis for your success. Able to organize skillfully, you can assemble top-notch people into an effective team.

Your flexibility inspires others. Although you can multitask and adapt to change, you really require stability and organization to be at your best.

You aren't one who likes to be questioned about personal matters yet you're curious and have a knack for getting others to reveal juicy details about themselves.

You lead an active life, with an emphasis on fitness and health. You strive hard to maintain your good reputation as well as your appearance and know you're on the right track when you receive praise from others.

Destiny Number 5, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 5

Happiest when you're busy, a quick pace and mental stimulation are basic requirements for you. Boredom has you frantically searching for new challenges.

A teacher at heart, you excel in both formal and informal settings. You vary your approach to keep your students interested and involved. This same approach helps you sell others on new ideas.

Sympathetic to those less fortunate, you enjoy helping others. A considerable amount of your time and attention is devoted to charitable activities. Although you would do it anyway, receiving appreciation and recognition makes it all the more worthwhile to you.

Restless energy and a desire for a change of scenery puts travel high on your list of personal pleasures. Between the major trips, you look forward to three-day weekends—an excuse for revelry.

A romantic at heart, you are in love with the thought of love. However, a possessive person is anathema to you.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 5

You have the desire and ability to lead and seek out groups where you can exercise those traits. At heart you're a pioneer, even if you're currently following a conservative path.

A natural problem solver, you're goal-oriented and idealistic. You like having your peers look to you for advice and leadership. Although you listen to their input in an attempt to keep everyone involved and happy, you usually end up doing things your own way.

You accomplish a lot and have the reputation of an energetic doer who's always in the middle of the action. You keep up with the latest news and trends, which leads people to look to you for new ideas.

Many people find you attractive, so it takes a novel approach to get your attention. You desire independence in a prospective mate and abhor possessiveness.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 4

Your courtesy and adaptability draw others to you. Polite and well-mannered, you're a good and attentive listener. Others value your meticulous attention to detail and ability to synthesize information.

A square dealer, you strive to make wrongs right. People respect you for always keeping your word and consistently delivering on your promises.

In your desire to be well-liked, you may go overboard and allow people to take advantage of you. You have a deep need to love and be loved, and having someone with whom to share your life makes living worthwhile. Generally frugal, you make exceptions for loved ones and purchase items of high quality.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 3

You exude charm and have a gift for gab, making you Mr. or Ms. Personality. You're never at a loss for words and can engage anyone in conversation—even if they're initially reticent, you fill the silence with a monologue until they are engaged.

You can be uncomfortable when part of a group that isn't getting along. But your excellent peace-making skills help convert the discord to harmony.

Your joie de vivre is contagious, and your good cheer and optimism attract a loyal following. People around you count on you to be responsible and keep your promises. Because you have a tendency to overcommit, this occasionally makes you nervous.

You're a clotheshorse whose wardrobe expenditures contribute to the economy. Always in search of a creative outlet, you see your wardrobe as a way to project your individuality.

DID YOU KNOW?

If given the choice, as a Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 3, and Personality Number 3, you should consider diplomacy over politics—it better matches your personality and skill set.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 2

Home and family are the center of your existence. Your home is your sanctuary, a revered place where you can live according to your principles. You do what it takes to maintain peaceful relationships both inside and outside the home.

Your warmth and spirit are magnetic, drawing others to you. You have a talent for putting people at ease and go the extra mile to fill their emotional needs, providing counsel according to your principles and beliefs. Although laced with common sense and practicality to your way of thinking, your advice might not be appropriate for those counseled. Whether or not they take your advice, they respect your good intentions.

You're dependable in personal interactions and reliable on the job. You work hard to build a solid foundation in order to fulfill your ambitions. Your honesty makes you shun any business practices that might damage your reputation or credibility.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 1

You're amiable and outgoing, genuinely enjoying the company of others. When in the mood, you attract friends with your protective and nurturing nature. You like to give good advice but have a tendency to overdo it. Nonetheless, people value your objectivity and the effect you have on them. You help people see and understand their situation through the application of logic rather than emotion.

Your determination and sense of responsibility make you a touchstone for reliability and just decisions. Personal ethics keep you from being party to unscrupulous practices—you have no future in politics.

Despite a strong desire for independence, you're loving and devoted to your family and friends. You enjoy a lot of mental stimulation and keep a large and diverse group of friends and acquaintances with whom to interact. Comfort and even luxury are on your wish list, making you willing to wait until you can afford the best.

You draw upon your ability to work in concert with others to achieve the harmony you seek in your relationships. You give of yourself and sacrifice to make those around you happy, which brings contentment to you.

Gracious and sociable, you have the ability to reach out to all kinds of people. Your amiable and helpful approach nets you a wide circle of friends and contacts. Willing to give someone the shirt off your back, all you need is a simple thank you in return.

Curb your tendency to inundate others with your advice—you have a propensity to wear out your soapbox. While most people realize that you're trying to help, your way is not the only way to do things and may not be the right way for everyone else.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 8

You strive for a balance between two personal priorities—the time you spend helping others and the time you spend pursuing your own interests. You're a social animal but are slow to befriend those who come on strong. You need to get to know someone well before you divulge personal information.

Able to handle whatever life throws at you, you project an image of strength. With finely tuned analytic skills, you know how to find workable solutions to any problem. When you see someone who can benefit from your help, you gladly pitch in. While you project emotional stability, it may mask private insecurity.

You're always ready to proffer well-considered advice, but you don't seek it from others. This could make you an excellent therapist, as you're willing to help people by getting them to talk about themselves and their issues without sharing your own inner thoughts. When pressed, you might lose your cool rather than reveal anything of yourself.

DID YOU KNOW?

Although a Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 7, and Personality Number 8 like you might consider being a therapist, other possible lines for you might be as an interviewer, journalist, or even a detective.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 7

You're complex and often difficult for others to understand. You vacillate between being lovable and keeping a distance from others. Appearing self-contained to others, it's important for you to always project an image of self-control.

You're organized and accept challenges in pursuit of your ambitions. You covet a big title, an impressive office, a substantial salary, and the opportunity to manage large groups. Always fair, with good judgment when delegating responsibility, you seek harmony in your presence and offer only the most unbiased opinions.

The image of tastefulness, you buy only the best, even if it limits the extent of your wardrobe—this is an area where quality trumps quantity for you.

Community affairs benefit from your excess energy. But know that you may meet resistance when you attempt to organize your loved ones like one of the committees you chair—back off at the first sign of opposition.

Destiny Number 6, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 6

Helping others is your mission in life—you have a penchant for helping to solve people's problems. Having survived your own personal disappointments helps you provide compassionate advice. Attempting to help loved ones can involve you in larger causes; in fact, the political arena isn't outside of your sphere.

A romantic at heart, you make relationships a priority. You're gracious and get along well with everyone, preferring to give in rather than fight. You also constantly adapt and subordinate yourself to the needs and wishes of others, particularly your family. This makes them feel they can depend upon you.

Your love of travel competes with your love of home. When you do travel, the short trips you take are typically in service to others.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 6

Well-groomed, tastefully attired, and impeccably mannered, you present a class act. Friends regard you as dependable and available for helpful consultation. Although warm and affectionate, you never gush, preferring to carefully consider what you're about to say before speaking.

You avoid pushy and clingy people, and your radar detects phonies a mile away. Not one to get too close to others too quickly, people must be trustworthy and willing to do their share before you let them into your inner circle.

Preferring to be in control, you choose to follow your instincts and do as you wish. Be cautioned that your self-sufficiency can make you impatient with people who don't understand your approach. Although others often perceive you as a loner, you actually crave praise and recognition more than most.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 5

You appear impulsive, frenetically pursuing multiple projects. However, there is a method to your frenzied pace—you're masking a shy and introverted inner you.

Casual acquaintances see you as someone who doesn't need people around, but your close friends know otherwise. Your confidantes also know that you take pride in your tact and diplomacy.

You prefer solitude when gathering information and analyzing problems. Lacking absolute proof, you can waver when trying to make a decision.

Although talented and capable in a variety of areas, you tend to specialize your interest. You have the ability to teach, and others come to you for your sage advice.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 4

You work hard at your specialty and, when asked, give sound advice. Don't take on too much, though—you may overcommit in an effort to gain the praise and recognition you crave.

You're an optimist at heart, with big dreams and great expectations. Foremost among your talents is a facility with words. Given an audience and the opportunity, you're very entertaining. Be glad that you like to think before you speak, because when you don't, you have a tendency to talk too much.

Although you're shy at times, you can also be sociable and charming. Your friends understand that you need alone time because you don't like exhibiting your inner feelings. A strong sense of loyalty makes you capable of sacrifice for others. Proud of your honesty, you expect a lot of yourself and those around you.

IT DOESN'T ADD UP

You're at your best as a Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 3, and Personality Number 4 when given a chance to think before you speak. Therefore, you should stay away from situations where you have to ad lib. Scripted comedy is more your forte than improv.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 3

You have a deep sense of responsibility, exemplified by your care in financial matters and your desire to have others rely upon you. Sentimental when it comes to romance, a dependable and practical partner finds you a patient and loyal match.

Your goal is perfection, and you seek it methodically through your pragmatic approach to life. When confronted by new products or ideas, your motto is "try before you buy."

Your tastes are traditional and refined. At ease socially, you exhibit a clever sense of humor. However, you're careful about what you say and reticent to reveal too much about yourself.

You sometimes think that your approach to life is unique. When feeling introspective, give yourself ample time alone to figure things out. Communing with nature or working with your hands aids you in those times.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 2

You present an amicable and pleasant persona. People around you value your perceptive questions and the attention you pay to the answers. Your curiosity can lead you to take some risks, such as trying new venues or following a friend's impulses in pursuit of new experiences.

Concentrating on a situation and choosing your words with care can give others the mistaken impression that you're aloof. When confronted by a flawed argument or dishonest claim, you avoid direct confrontation, filing the information away for future reference. However, you're only patient to a point; you're apt to push tolerance aside when you think the other party isn't behaving appropriately.

Unconventional personalities and curious minds intrigue you. While you like to learn what makes others tick, you're unwilling to reveal your innermost dreams and desires.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 1

You're a self-sufficient and determined leader with an air of authority. Because of the aura of mystery about you, the first impression people have is that you're aloof—a consequence of your quiet and reserved nature. You play everything close to the vest, revealing only what is absolutely necessary in any given situation. In your mind, silence is golden.

Contrary to the perceptions of others, you have a strong desire to help others and live harmoniously. Never one to boast or brag, your love of family is evident by the perfectly framed photos facing you on your desk.

You set high standards of achievement for yourself, striving to be the best at whatever you do. To you, quality is economy—you insist on having the finest and won't accept second best. You want to be loved and respected, but most of all, you want to be understood.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 9

You're poised and in control—the picture of refinement. Your behavior and appearance are always in good taste. Accepting only the best, you're very particular about your possessions.

You seek knowledge and are intrigued by mystery. Dealing with the mental challenges you set for yourself requires time alone, often in the tranquility of nature.

People respect your astute mind and keen powers of observation. Because you need to see proof before embracing a concept, you take nothing on faith. You have the ability to reach the masses when spreading your knowledge.

While your real desire is to be alone with chosen friends, you have a gracious quality and exhibit acting ability when dealing with the public. Able to spot a phony a mile away, intellectual challenge beats out superficiality and false flattery every time.

You demand a lot of yourself and others in pursuit of perfection. Although you insist on honesty and don't lie, you conceal things in order to preserve your privacy. Others rightly trust you with their secrets, and you're equally careful with your own, revealing them only when you find someone equally trustworthy.

DID YOU KNOW?

As a Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 7, and Personality Number 9, you have a talent for observation. When combined with your natural skepticism and ability to convince an audience, you could do well as an investigative journalist.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 8

To maintain a tasteful appearance, you buy only the best and are finicky about your possessions. Equally selective in your choice of friends, you can be somewhat snobbish, seeking only people of your social station or higher.

You can be secretive when asked direct questions, lest you reveal something personal. Problems are puzzles to be solved, and in your search for truth and answers, you don't take "no" for an answer.

Very ambitious, you aspire to a position of great influence. You're a workaholic who demands high standards for yourself and those around you. With a clear view of the big picture, you use your organizational skills to set up and efficiently manage a system. You're also a proficient manager who delegates well and wisely. Your planning skills could be your ticket to achieving your goals.

Destiny Number 7, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 7

You're a perfectionist and very picky about everything in your life, from your possessions to the people around you. Only people you can trust can penetrate your inner circle. Although you appear aloof to others, those closest to you know that appearances can be deceiving.

Although basically honest, you can be less than forthcoming to avoid offending someone or being misunderstood. You're especially reticent unless you know someone well, and even then, you speak out only when you're absolutely sure of your position. One of your greatest fears is being wrong and looking like a fool.

Not one to fall for a quick-talking salesman, you study the pros and cons of products before you buy. You're a natural researcher and scrutinize everything to discern patterns and meanings in your search for truth. Always curious as to why and how and fascinated by the details of complex issues, you listen carefully to pick up clues.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 7

You're energetic, always on the go, and climbing the ladder toward success. The prospect of an important position inspires you to work hard. Driven by a quest for money and the power it brings, you want only the best in life.

Others find you pleasant and easy to get along with but difficult to get to know. You don't need a lot of people in your life, and solitude doesn't faze you.

There's no real demarcation between your personal and professional life—you never pass on an opportunity to make new contacts or to follow a lead. You know the company to keep and where to be seen in order to advance socially and professionally.

You like being considered a trendsetter but don't really seek or need the approval of others. Physical fitness and a good appearance are important to you, so you schedule time to exercise regularly. You like athletic competition and enjoy the contacts that come from participation in sports.

You're better at giving orders than taking them and can't tolerate anyone breathing down your neck. Though you prefer your own way of doing things, you're an effective delegator. The slow or lazy can make you impatient, but you listen to the input of others. You also make decisions quickly, but they often reflect the input received from those around you.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 6

Happiest when in love, you seek a devoted mate to pamper. And because you give love freely, you desire reciprocation and can have your feelings hurt when your partner wants a little space.

You're patient and go out of your way to be helpful and cooperative at work and with friends. You gladly help others and give due credit when the favor is returned. Placing a strong value on harmony, you live by your personal credo of "peace at any price."

You're willing to meet challenges and accept responsibility to further your ambitions. While happy to carry more than your share of the load, you effectively unite factions within groups. Your attention to detail and skill at handling others makes you an effective manager.

You ride an emotional rollercoaster, which can impact your health and your weight. You find decision-making difficult when emotions are involved. Because you consider people's feelings and can see both sides, you can become indecisive. When pressured, you may let your heart rather than your head control you.

DID YOU KNOW?

The character J. Pierrepont Finch in Shepherd Mead's 1952 bestseller How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying (later a musical on Broadway and on screen), could have been written with the Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 2, and Personality Number 6 in mind.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 5

Essentially an optimist, you avoid worries that your busy schedule might cause by keeping things light. Most people can't maintain your pace, but when you have the freedom to set your own hours and make the rules, your organizational skills see you through.

Your love of the spotlight and verbal skills make you an excellent entertainer. Socially adept, you have a talent for making important contacts and can use your charm to convince others to give you what you want. By paying attention to your physical and mental health, you maintain the energy necessary to pursue your many projects. Every passing year brings you closer to your goal of position and power and increases your confidence level.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 4

Leading a disciplined life, you make the most of every hour and day. An ambitious approach helps you accomplish a great deal, and your keen business judgment and logic make you an effective organizer. Once you've set up the system and delegated responsibility, you expect performance. You don't like to make changes and, so long as everyone follows your instructions precisely, you don't feel the need.

You take commitments seriously and expect the same from others. Naturally frugal and never extravagant, you still require quality for your dollar. Financial security is a higher priority to you than outward signs of success.

You're devoted to your loved ones and desire deep, meaningful relationships. If your mate falls short, you let your disappointment be known. However, if the situation calls for it, you can bottle up your feelings.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 3

You thrive on variety and are happiest when involved in multiple, simultaneous ventures. A hectic schedule doesn't impair your organization. Making your own schedule and creating your own rules go hand-in-glove with your flexible approach.

Your curious and versatile mind generates original—and often unconventional—ideas. You grasp concepts and size up situations quickly, coming to almost instantaneous decisions. Quick to exploit an opening, you rely on charm and an ability to articulate to involve others in business ventures. When the stakes are high, with money to be made, you welcome business challenges and competition. You also never pass up the chance to make a new contact or take advantage of an opportunity.

Your humor and energy make you attractive to others. However, you hate to be tied down and don't deal well with obstacles in your path to personal freedom.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 2

Strong-willed but with a surprisingly soft heart, you're an effective leader. Although you like being in charge, you want those around you to get along and be happy. You listen to the ideas of others and care about their feelings; therefore, community projects often benefit from your involvement. You're particularly effective at organizing fundraisers.

You're adept at putting others at ease and are frequently in demand as a mediator. If you had your way, peace and fairness would be the order of the day. Although you're blessed with common sense, you need to avoid letting your feelings get in the way when making decisions.

Because your family is important to you, creating a pleasant home environment is critical. With high expectations of yourself and others, you also expect your family to reflect well upon you. Although you're responsible and want people to depend upon you, you'll pitch in if you see people unable to hold up their end. When you feel that someone has taken advantage of you, you're still able to communicate your disappointment in a nice way.

IT DOESN'T ADD UP

Either the expression "You're known by the company you keep" or "If you lie down with dogs, you get up with fleas" could apply to the Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 6, and Personality Number 2. Be careful of the company you keep if you want them to reflect well on you.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 1

You're seen as an independent leader with the courage to act on your own ideas. People recognize you as efficient and capable, able to analyze what's needed in any situation and to efficiently manage people to accomplish the task at hand. You work best alone without anyone breathing down your neck—taking orders is not your strong suit.

You're career-oriented, but your skills are evident in any setting. You take pleasure in attacking and solving challenging problems. You arrive at sound conclusions through careful thought, keen powers of observation, and good intuition. Able to turn a profit in almost any venture you undertake, your emotional balance and determination can put a prosperous future within reach.

Essentially private, you reveal your inner feelings only to those you really trust. You respect other people's privacy, and in turn they trust you not to reveal their secrets.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 9

You take pride in knowing all the right people, and you use these contacts to accomplish worthwhile community projects. People appreciate your ability to see the big picture and communicate it effectively. You're nobody's fool and don't let anyone take advantage of you.

You like to be in control and accomplish a lot when you're able to do things your way. You tend to delegate the details but spend long hours making sure everything is done and works together. You have your own timetable and system for completing projects and chafe when asked for an update on your progress.

A workaholic by nature, the one area of your life that's lacking is time for yourself to enjoy the fruits of your labor. The result of taking your responsibilities seriously is a shortage of time for recreation.

Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 8

You have an air of authority—you not only appear to be in charge, you also readily give the orders to back up that impression. Organized and efficient, you work well with large groups of people. A necessary but enjoyable aspect of your work, travel fills your need for freedom.

You set high goals and possess the determination required to achieve them. You're caught up in your work, giving it your all and gaining respect for your accomplishments. People admire you, even though you're hard to get to know well. Although driven by success, you share generously with those you care about.

You won't let others push you around but at your core, you're a soft-hearted romantic. There's nothing you wouldn't do for your loved ones, and you deeply enjoy knowing your efforts are appreciated.

DID YOU KNOW?

As a Destiny Number 8, Soul Number 9, and Personality Number 8, you give everything your all, whether you're at work, donating your time to charity, or competing in a sport. Others respect your dedication and accomplishments.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 1, Personality Number 8

You're an energetic individual and accomplish your most when put in charge. Others respect how confidently you approach challenges.

At work, autonomy to set your own schedule is important to you. You have the vision to see the most efficient method to achieve your project's goals and don't waste any time in implementing that vision. You tend to take care of the coordination and the big issues while delegating the details to others.

You're a free spirit who refuses to be dominated. You often come up with original ways to accomplish philanthropic goals. Although you care about helping others, you look out for number one first.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 2, Personality Number 7

You project an air of confidence bordering on haughtiness that says that you're in control. This appearance of aloofness conceals a sensitive soul.

Sometimes you care so deeply that you come on too strong. As a consequence, you sometimes soft-pedal your feelings. Your pursuit of love and romance can result in overtures that are misunderstood.

Because you enjoy diversity, your friends come from all walks of life. Your interests are as broad as your circle of friends and include art, music, and travel. You're also happier working in a group than alone. Sometimes, in an effort to sell others on an idea, you embellish the facts.

You're generous and will help anyone who deserves it, but you expect your contributions to be appreciated. Unfortunately, people sometimes try to take advantage of your kindness and good nature.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 3, Personality Number 6

Friendly and outgoing, you can talk to anyone about any subject. Your enthusiasm is contagious, and people feel happier when around you.

Considered solid and responsible, people are surprised when they find that you sometimes take on more than you can handle. Because you have the best intentions and genuinely think you can do it all, you feel guilty when you can't fulfill your promises.

You put others at ease with your warm smile and winning personality. You excel in front of large groups and are a kind, compassionate teacher. You like to inspire people; when that's recognized, you feel like you've earned your gold star.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 4, Personality Number 5

You appear to others as full of life, but that conceals your conservative and somewhat rigid core. You value and practice honesty, which garners respect for your integrity.

By thinking things through in a clear manner, you're an effective problem solver. After careful planning, you work hard to achieve tangible results.

Your generosity is balanced by your pursuit of financial security. You hate waste and go out of your way to get value for your dollar. Although you're willing to spend for what you need or really want, you shun expenditures on things that are unnecessary.

You have a large social circle, enjoy travel, and cultivate your interest in the arts. Meaningful relationships are important to you, but even when feeling deep affection, you have difficulty expressing how much you care. Short of dishonesty, there isn't anything you wouldn't do for those you love.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 5, Personality Number 4

You have a humanitarian bent and are a keen student of human nature and behavior. Your family is the center of your world, and you will sacrifice anything for them and their well-being.

Quick to grasp new ideas, you excel at solving problems and puzzles. Your versatility in dealing with people and situations helps you compete effectively when faced with one of life's challenges.

Although you believe in a live-and-let-live approach, you give the impression of discipline and conservatism. People see the results of your efforts but don't always realize that you can play just as hard as you work.

You strongly believe in exercising to relieve stress. Always on the lookout to kill two birds with one stone, you often pack a tennis racquet or your golf clubs when traveling on business.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 6, Personality Number 3

You often involve yourself in good works and other charitable causes. In your personal life, you give freely of yourself, your home, and your talents, often making your contributions in the arts. A gifted conversationalist, you have the talent to make people laugh.

Your loved ones are the primary beneficiaries of your generosity—you delight in showering them with gifts. You also enjoy creating beautiful surroundings, and your family and home are testament to your taste. While your home is your haven, you're willing to open the door wide to let others in and enjoy your company.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 7, Personality Number 2

Although outwardly cooperative and sensitive to others' feelings, you do all you can to avoid superficial company and idle chitchat. You're fussy in choosing friends, often preferring to keep your own company.

You go along with almost anyone who can present a good, logical case. A perceptive analyst, you achieve many successes by following your hunches. Carefully considering all options and information first, you watch and listen before venturing an opinion. Even though politeness is your policy, an insatiable curiosity compels you to ask questions in pursuit of knowledge.

The disparity between your very private side and your interests in public causes can confuse others. These mixed messages and a reluctance to share your opinions make you a mystery to casual acquaintances.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 8, Personality Number 1

You have the will to meet any challenge, putting all possibilities within your reach. You're not one to stand on the sidelines or be part of a team—you crave power.

You project a larger-than-life image, and your ability to communicate with others makes your influence felt. With a reputation for being broadminded and tolerant, others readily follow your lead.

Sharing your talent and expertise, you always seem to show a profit. The financial rewards of your efforts aren't enough, though; you also seek public recognition and appreciation. Any individual or group who doesn't express gratitude won't benefit from your generosity a second time.

PYTHAGORAS SAYS

As a Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 8, and Personality Number 1, you can excel at a career in the self-help field. Not only would it satisfy your desire for financial and emotional recognition, you would relish in the power and influence of your position. The influence you have in such a role also sates your craving for power.

Destiny Number 9, Soul Number 9, Personality Number 9

You offer yourself, your time, and your talents freely without expecting recognition; however, you appreciate it deeply when your efforts are acknowledged.

You have musical or artistic talent, or at least a strong appreciation of them. Unprejudiced, you have unusual friends from all walks of life. Others trust you because of your broadmindedness. Your heart rules you, and that emotional approach has brought you your share of disappointments. If you let them, your feelings can tear you apart.

Despite your heart of gold and willingness to do almost anything for a friend, your spirit bristles when you feel too tightly bound by commitments. You don't want to hurt anyone, but you need the freedom to pursue your own interests as well.

You like to deal with grand concepts and leave the petty details to others. It's important to not let people take advantage of you, because you're prone to tell more than you should to anyone who shows an interest.
